THE DANIRA COLLECTION / 2027

From Athens to the Ionian

ATHENS / COSTA NAVARINO / ZAKYNTHOS

Ancient beauty.
Open horizons.

Ten nights for two: the Acropolis at dusk, the beaches of Messinia and the clear coves of Zakynthos. A journey in which the sea becomes part of the way.

A DIFFERENT RHYTHM

The city gives way to the sea.

An extraordinary encounter with the Acropolis.

A farm breakfast with local hosts.

Exquisite coves on a private cruise.

DAYS 1-3

Athens, past and present

Two nights at The Dolli

DAY 1

An elegant arrival

After your airport welcome, continue to The Dolli in the heart of Athens. High ceilings, works of art and soft light give it the feel of an elegant city residence. Settle into your room, stroll through the old neighbourhoods or linger on the terrace overlooking the Acropolis.

DAY 2

An extraordinary encounter with Athens

Explore Athens by day, from ancient monuments to lively neighbourhoods and intimate squares. In the evening, visit the Acropolis exclusively with our finest licensed guide. The marble of the Parthenon catches the evening light as the city begins to glow below: a memorable encounter with this extraordinary place.

After your Acropolis visit, continue the evening over dinner with a view of the illuminated monument. We can arrange a restaurant reservation around your tastes; dining is charged separately.

DAY 3

Through wine country to the coast

Leave Athens behind and journey into the Peloponnese. Pause at the Corinth Canal before continuing towards Nemea, where the vineyards offer a change of scenery and the opportunity to discover local wines. By the end of the journey, the landscape opens onto Navarino Bay and Mandarin Oriental Costa Navarino.

The day is shaped around the journey rather than a hurried sightseeing schedule. The winery visit can be tailored to your interests; tasting and dining are additional.

01 / THE CITY

Light. Art. Serenity.
In the heart of Athens.

DAYS 3-7

The art of slowing down

Four nights at Mandarin Oriental Costa Navarino

DAY 3

A new rhythm on Navarino Bay

Beyond the hills of Messinia, the sea comes into view and Mandarin Oriental blends into the landscape. Settle into your room and spend your first evening on the coast, with soft light over the bay and the sea breeze setting the pace for the days ahead.

A day left beautifully open

Begin with an unhurried breakfast, then make your way to the beach. A swim, a lounger beside the sea, a book in the shade or a spa treatment: today is yours to enjoy.

DAY 5

Messinia, at the table

Spend half a day among the rural landscapes of Messinia. At a local farm, your hosts introduce the craft of Greek cheese-making and invite you to breakfast with their own produce. Simple flavours, personal stories and warm hospitality reveal the character of the region. Return to the coast for a leisurely afternoon.

DAY 6

Time, entirely your own

Another unhurried day on the coast. Return to a favourite spot by the water, linger over lunch or simply enjoy the space and calm of the resort before the next chapter of the journey.

DAY 7

The Ionian opens before you

Step aboard your yacht: the passage to Zakynthos becomes a full day at sea. The coast recedes, the water changes colour and sheltered coves invite a swim along the way. Your first encounter with the island is an arrival by sea. The route and swimming stops depend on weather and the captain’s assessment.

02 / THE COAST

The luxury of time,
beside Navarino Bay.

DAYS 7-11

An island in Ionian blue

Four nights at Lesante Cape

DAY 7

An island welcome

After your day at sea, continue to Lesante Cape. Stone facades, intimate courtyards and open sea views evoke a small Greek village. Settle into your room and spend the evening enjoying your first impressions of the island.

DAY 8

The pleasure of an unplanned day

Breakfast without a rush, time by the water and a day that follows your mood. For the evening, we recommend Fiore Fine Dining at Lesante Cape: refined cuisine showcasing local produce, framed by panoramic sea views. A table can be reserved on request; dinner is charged separately.

DAY 9

Zakynthos, beyond the shoreline

White cliffs above turquoise water, quiet coves and swimming away from the shore: a day aboard your yacht reveals the most striking coastal landscapes of Zakynthos. The proposed route includes the Navagio area and selected stretches of coastline; stops depend on conditions on the day.

DAY 10

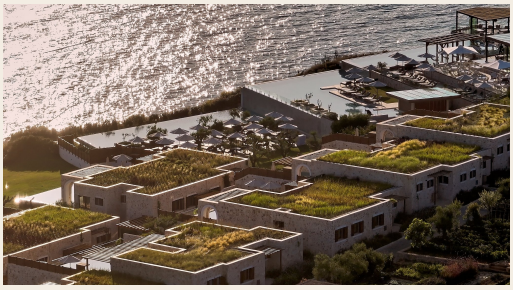

A final day to linger

Keep your last full day open. Revisit a favourite corner of the hotel or ask us to arrange an island experience around your interests. The itinerary leaves space for the moments you choose yourself.

DAY 11

A graceful departure

After breakfast, continue to Zakynthos Airport for your flight to Athens. Assistance with your onward connection completes the journey, with the arrangements coordinated around your flight schedule.

03 / THE ISLAND

An Ionian retreat,
at Lesante Cape.
